MEETING NEARING ITS CLOSE

Jefferson Park Racing Covers Only Seven More Days.

Attractions Provided for This Week Include Two $1,000 Purses—Leading Winners.

New Orleans, La., December 23.—The Jefferson Park meeting enters upon its last lap of seven days with the running of tomorrow's program and indications point to the final week being the best one of the season. Track conditions are now better than at any time since the new course was opened and the weather for the past week has been all that could be desired for outdoor sport. With a return to good weather and a better track, many of the higher class of horses got into action. This served to stimulate the sport all around.

Even with many horses making their first starts of the meeting, the form backers are still in their stride and thus far out of 124 races run at the meeting fifty-two of them have fallen to favorites. This is remarkable, when it is taken into consideration that for a period of more than a week, the course was in wretched condition, due to heavy rains, but form was better preserved when the going was muddy than it has been since it became good.

Two handicaps, each with $1,000 added, are down for decision this week, the first one being the Christmas Handicap for all ages at one mile and one-sixteenth, to be run Tuesday, the other being the Star and Crescent Handicap for all ages at the same distance, to be run Saturday. For the closing day of the meeting, New Years eve, the Au Revoir Handicap for all ages at one mile will be the stellar feature.

ROBINSON LEADS THE JOCKEYS.

After getting on even terms with him for the leadership of the riders here three times during the past week, jockey Albert Johnson failed by one winning mount to remain tied for the head of the list with jockey Frank Robinson. The latter has won twenty races and Johnson nineteen. Those who have won three or more races are G. Walls, 12; O. Willis and M. Garner, 9 each; W. Kelsay and E. Martin, 5 apiece; L. Lykes and J. Collins, 4 each; J. Mooney, F. Keogh and E. Donahue, 3 apiece. Thirty-four jockeys have ridden one or more winners.

W. C. Capps still retains his lead in the matter of purse winning owners with $3,030 to his credit. His nearest rival is J. O. Talbott, whose horses have earned $2,300 for him here. Others above the $1,000 mark are H. Field, $1,985; W. Stormont, $1,700; George Peterson, $1,500; M. C. Moore, $1,300; H. Perkins, $1,350; B. Williams, $1,200; C. T. Worthington, $1,200; M. Shea, $1,170; W. C. Went, $1,140; W. P. Orr, $1,110; A. M. Hurd, $1,100, and B. J. Brannon, $1,050.

SEEK WAR NAMES FOR BABY RACERS

New York, December 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Arlington will spend the winter in New Orleans. The Arlington horses, in charge of trainer Frank Herold, which are being campaigned at Jefferson Park, are Muckross, Scarpia II., Tumbler, In, Brother Jonathan, St. Isidore, Kokoli, Kilmer, Kalmia Park, Poor Joe and Mirza.

Before leaving for the Crescent City, Mr. Arlington filed claims with Registrar Rowe of the Jockey Club for four yearlings. The names sought by Mr. Arlington for his coming racers have to do with the winter war. His selection are Over the Top, Over There, Questionnaire and Camouflage. The colt for which he is seeking the name Over the Top is by Zeus—Frances, and was recently purchased at the dispersal sale of the late Schuyler L. Parsons' horses.

Koh-i-Noor, also bought at the Parsons sale, will be given a rest until spring. She, with the Zeus—Frances colt and Republican, have been turned over to James Fitzsimmons at Gravesend for the cold months.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

R. S. A., Chicago, Ill. Colt is now twelve years old, having been foaled in 1905.

A. F. K., Cincinnati, O. To reply to your queries would involve too much time and labor to be undertaken. To search out stallions and mares tracing to Bonnie Scotland alone would be a huge task. The Stud Book is published by the Jockey Club and can be obtained from its registrar, W. H. Rowe, 18 East 41st St., New York.

A. H. M., San Diego, Cal. When one backs a single horse of a coupled entry, the matter is decided by the running of that horse. If he desires the benefit of the entry, it is open to him to back the entry unconditionally, or with the preferred horse named "to go."

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

A. McL. Earlock, is "somewhere in Kentucky" soliciting entries for the Futurity of 1920, which will have a guaranteed value of $30,000. This is the first time a representative has been sent as a special emissary to canvas subscriptions.

Jules Garson has left New York for Pinlico to look after the horses of Frederick Housman, quartered there. The yearlings belonging to Mr. Housman were recently shipped to Baltimore, the latest acquisition being the yearling filly by Uncle—Crazy Quilt, purchased at the Durland sale last week.

LITTLEFIELD QUITS SEAGRAM STABLE

Toronto, Ont., December 23.—After fifteen years of faithful service, trainer B. T. Littlefield has severed his connection with the stable of Joseph E. Seagram. He passed through this city today en route to his home in New York. His host of friends here greatly regret his departure. Many notable victories were won by the Seagram horses while in his charge, among them five King's Plates. He made no announcement regarding his future plans.

BIG BAND OF YOUNG FOREIGN-BRED HORSES WHICH RACED FOR G. H. BROWNE THIS YEAR

Twenty-one of the twenty-eight horses which raced under the colors of Grant Hugh Browne in 1917 were foreign bred. Outside of King Herod, none of them acquired any particular distinction in racing, although African Arrow and Irish Kiss proved to be at least useful. King Herod may have been by nature a really good three-year-old. At least some competent judges thought so. But an injury and leg troubles beset him early in the racing year, so a true estimate of his actual prowess could not be reached definitely. Of the American-bred horses Ed Cudihue was the stable's principal money earner and, when at his best, is a horse of great speed at any distance up to a mile. Another native-bred which more than paid her way was the Abe Frank mare, Josefina Zarate. Some of his English-bred ones were raced but little and, being now acclimatized, may race well for his interest in 1918. The stable record for the year was:

ONE OF OUR OLDEST TURFMEN

David Gideon, Who Won the Futurity with His Highness in 1891, Still Racing Horses.

New York, December 23.—David Gideon is one of the oldest and longest New York turfmen and the sudden death of his former intimate friend, the late Oscar Lewisohn, has served to bring his name to mind with especial emphasis. For several years Mr. Lewisohn and Mr. Gideon have been stabling their thoroughbreds in the same training stables and the arrangement seems to have continued up to the day of Mr. Lewisohn's death. It is quite a number of years since Mr. Gideon raced one of the most powerful stables on the metropolitan circuit and when he was regarded as the owner to be reckoned with by those who aspired to win the Futurity. In those days he was a liberal buyer of yearlings and was looked upon as always in the market for stake animals whose future looked especially rosy. The victory of that splendid colt His Highness, by The Ill-Used, brought him especial prominence in turf circles. The stake was worth $61,675 and the runner-up was that great filly Yorkville Belle.

The victory of His Highness was an especially decisive one in practically deciding the championship of the two-year-old division that year, for while this great filly carried 115 pounds, His Highness was carrying the crushing impost of 130 pounds, James McLaughlin, now well-known as the popular patrol judge on the metropolitan circuit, saying the mount on the winner. Everything appeared to work against His Highness that day as far as luck was concerned, for the field was a large one and as the starting barrier was unknown in those days, the youngsters were at the post for more than an hour and Dagonet, which ran third, had only 108 on his back.

WON FUTURITY THREE TIMES.

Three years later Mr. Gideon won the Futurity with The Butterflies, the fast and game daughter of Sir Dixon and right on the back of that, in 1895, came the victory of that splendid colt Requit in the same race. Harry Griffin, who now is in the real estate business in San Francisco, rode both The Butterflies and Requit. Mr. Gideon sold Requit, but he retained both His Highness and The Butterflies and as both were richly bred and splendid individuals, trusting to the almost axiomatic breeding theory that "like produces like," he mated them in the hope of obtaining still another Futurity winner. In this he was disappointed, but the product of this promising cross, Her Majesty, was a remarkably fine filly and has become a valuable broodmare, she being the dam of that splendid horse His Majesty, now at the head of Gifford A. Cochran's Rummymede Stud and the beautiful brown filly Admiration, which won as a two-year-old in 1916 and, although she started but three times during the present year, showed especial form in her preparation, although she was unfortunate in her racing. It is probable that she will take a place among Mr. Gideon's broodmares during the coming year.

It appears altogether probable that this richly-bred mare Her Majesty, may yet hold a prominent place among the broodmares of this country. Her sire, His Highness, was without doubt the best son of that great race horse and sire The Ill-Used, first known on the turf as the Breadbale colt and a direct descendant in the male line from "The Emperor of Stallions," Stockwell, by The Baron—Pocahontas, the famous daughter of Glencoe, which sired her before he had been brought to this country, where he founded one of the most highly valued of thoroughbred families on this continent, and from which came Vandal and other great ones in the male line and literally a host of the most valued broodmares to be found in the American Stud Book. Through Virgil, the son of Vandal and his best son as a sire, come Hindoo, Hanover and Hamburg in the male line, not to speak of Tremont and many other great race horses of a few equine generations ago, besides many extremely valuable broodmares. In fact, it is a generally accepted theory among breeders that the descendants of Glencoe have been worth millions to the horse breeders of this country. It is not alone through the progeny of Glencoe that the racing strains of this country have been enriched through such sons of Glencoe mares as Gilroy, Kentucky, Norfolk, etc., but through the descendants of Stockwell, which have been brought to this country. All of the many descendants of Bend Or, which through Doncaster came from Stockwell, but those of that wonderful son of Blair Athol (by Stockwell), Prince Charlie and his sons, Pirate of Penzance, Salvo and Hayden Edwards and grandsons too numerous to mention.

Taking only the descendants of Virgil into con-

MATES FOR BRADLEY'S BROODMARES

Kentucky Breeder to Mate Ten Mares to North Star III.—Has Thirty-Two Matrons in Stud.

Lexington, Ky., December 22.—Col. Edward Riley Bradley (he's now a member of Governor A. O. Stanley's staff) has thirty-two matrons in his Idle Hour Stock Farm stud for the season of 1918 and has just completed his schedule for their mating. To his newly acquired English stallion North Star III, he has assigned Badoura, Breathing Spell, Bandello, Benamet, Lady Languish, Love Not, Pressanella, Santa Anna, Sweet Alice and Tower of Candles. To Cumard he will send Bellisario, Eonic, Follies Bergeres, Lady Colonelist and Winning Widow. Helmet's allotment embraces Bob's Olga, Grail, Killanna, May Bird, Miss Ringlets, Padula and Vaila. To Black Tony will go Almadie, Acutissima, Macaroon, Masks and Faces, Melton Mowbray, Wayward Lass and Whisk Broom. Bit of a Devil, which is to be mated for the first time, goes to Beach Comber. Stumpy will be returned to Marathon and Bed of Roses, now in foal to Helmet, will go to Short Grass.

Breathing Spell was not bred in 1917 and Bandello, Winning Widow and Grail are barren. All of the others appear to be in foal, as follows: To Helmet—Pressanella, Badoura, Follies Bergeres, Eonic, Killanna, Vaila and Acutissima; to Cumard—Love Not, Santa Anna, Tower of Candles, Lady Languish, Lady Colonelist, Bob's Olga, May Bird, Masks and Faces, Almadie, Macaroon and Wayward Lass; to Black Tony—Benamet, Sweet Alice, Padula and Melton Mowbray; to Uncle—Bellisario; to Marathon—Miss Ringlets, and to Ben Brush, Whisk Broom.

The foaling period at Idle Hour will be covered by the months of February, March and April, unless there should be some over-running of dates. The mares first due to foal are Love Not and Eonic on February 26, and the last due is Lady Colonelist on April 25.

Trainer Cliff Hammon has the coming two-year-olds and other horses in training quarters at the farm and he is well pleased with prospects for 1918.

Colonel and Mrs. Bradley are at Chicago to spend the holidays, after which they will go to New Orleans and Palm Beach for the remainder of the winter.

sideration and that one grandson of Glencoe will be found to have been the fountain head of a numerous and invaluable family, for from this one male line come Hindoo, Hanover, Hamburg, Compute, Halm, Tremont, Yankee, Abe Frank and many other high-class sires, while Hamburg dams have become almost a household word among horse breeders. Through The Ill-Used the blood of Glencoe has been brought into this country through a line quite apart from the accustomed channels, furnishing through brief out-cross a return of this highly prized strain of blood. Through this same strain comes that highly valued blood which has greatly conduced to the rare value of not a few of Mr. Belmont's broodmares produced at the Nursery Stud in Kentucky.

On her dam's side Her Majesty brings in Sir Dixon (sire of The Butterflies) cross, which is one of the best American strains in the Stud Book. A great race horse himself, Sir Dixon was a son of Helmet, which was by Voltigeur, which also sired Vedette, sire of Galopin and grandsire of St. Simon. Sir Dixon's dam was Jaconet (sister to Iroquois) by Lexington—Maggie B. B., by Australian. Thus it will be seen that Her Majesty combines in her pedigree and through top crosses at that strains of blood which are unsurpassable in the American or any other Stud Book.

Mr. Gideon has retained Her Majesty in his small and select stud, and has been breeding her to his valuable sire, Astronomer. During the past year he had a fast two-year-old filly, Medusa, by Astronomer—Her Majesty, and now he has an extremely neat and racey-looking brown filly of the same breeding. This filly ought to be fast if quality of conformation, fine racing outlines and high finish count for anything, and her trainer, the veteran John Miller, entertains a high opinion of her. He also has a fine looking bay yearling filly by Astronomer—Karna, and a neat bay gelding by Astronomer—Helen O. C.

Mr. Gideon also owns a half interest in the two-year-old chestnut gelding Uranium, by Astronomer—Mary Greenwood, trainer John Miller having bought a half interest in the youngster from him. Mr. Miller, who has been training this youngster, expects good things of him during the racing of 1918.

SOCIETY TURNS OUT IN FORCE

All Boxes Filled and Grandstand Crowded at Oriental Park.

Biggest Attendance of Meeting Sees Close and Interesting Racing—Track Bad.

Havana, Cuba, December 23.—Society turned out in force at Oriental Park this afternoon, all the boxes in the spacious grandstand being occupied. One of the largest crowds of the meeting was present and, despite the poor track conditions, saw some interesting racing.

The feature race, which was programmed as the fifth, furnished a sniew-straining finish in which Money lasted long enough to beat Early Sight a head.

Miss Fannie displayed the most early speed, but began tiring after passing the half where Billy Joe appeared to be going strongly. The latter's effort to overtake the early pacemaker so exhausted him that he quit badly after assuming the lead. Coming into the stretch Money and Early Sight were so closely aligned that it appeared anybody's race. Money managed to retain his slight advantage until the winning line was passed, although Early Sight was gaining with every stride.

A band of two-year-old maidens opened the day's proceedings. Harlock, a first-time starter, was a warm favorite, but after a brief flash of early speed, floundered in the going and tired badly in the stretch. The winner turned up in Zu Zu, which was kept close up from the start and, after being momentarily passed in the stretch, came again and drew away into a big lead in the last eighth. Shasta tired badly after passing Zu Zu in the stretch.

Backers of favorites were given a jolt in the second race when Banyan scored in easy fashion over Sal Vanity, which shared favoritism with Elizabeth Lee. The latter quit badly after setting the early pace, but Sal Vanity raced forwardly all the way, but could never overtake the leader.

CLOSE CONTEST IN THIRD RACE.

An evenly balanced field contested the running of the third race. It was a close and hard fought struggle from start to finish. Frank Patterson was the first to show in front, followed by Brown Baby and Muzanti. At the half Brown Baby moved to the front and led to the stretch, where Muzanti challenged and secured a slight advantage, which he held to the end.

Another thrilling finish marked the close of the fourth race when Bulger earned a neck kdecision over Parlor Boy. Rhyme's failure to stay after setting a fast pace to the stretch was the biggest disappointment of the afternoon, as he was considered to be the best thing of the day.

The closing dash resulted in an easy victory for Bill Simmons, which outclassed those opposed to him.

The weights for the first stake of the meeting, which will be run Tuesday, were announced today. Y. J. Murch has been assigned top weight of 119 pounds. There are thirty-four horses eligible and a well-balanced field is assured, as several of the eligibles have shown some fast trials.

W. Crump added two more winning races to his total for the year when he piloted Muzanti and Bill Simmons to victory today.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS

At New Orleans last winter jockeys F. Robinson and W. Crump had a memorable and long drawn out duel for the racing honors of the meeting, which terminated in favor of Crump. Something similar marks the Jefferson Park meeting, in which Robinson and A. Johnson are having a nip and tuck struggle, with Robinson at present having a shade the best of the contest in that he leads his more youthful rival to the extent of one more winning mount to his credit. Each of the pair rode five winners last week and in that respect equalled all competitors. At Havana W. Crump managed to squeeze home two winners and now appears unlikely to be disturbed in his leadership, although closely pressed by Robinson and Johnson. At present the records of the thirty leading riders are:

BREEDERS TO AID UNITED STATES

New York, December 23.—The Arabian Horse Club of America, at the meeting held at the Belmont Hotel, recommended that a meeting be called of all the breeders and delegates of breeding associations to form a plan of co-operative breeding to help the remount service.

The following resolution was passed: "Whereas, the present position of the United States government in the world war requires that the best horses for all utilitarian purposes shall be placed at its disposal.

"Resolved, that we, the breeders of all horses of recognized dominant strains, laying aside all personal consideration, pledge our earnest efforts to co-operation to breed horses that shall give the maximum efficiency as required, and, if possible, produce horses that shall have no superior in the world."

FORTUNATE AMONG ENGLAND'S OWNERS

Incidents in the Career of One Who Has Reaped
the Highest Honors of Racing.

"Mr. Fairie," an assumed name which but thinly veils the identity of A. W. Cox, is in the happy position of heading the list of winning owners and his aggregate of 11,751 sovereigns is in a limited season a large one, although not comparable with those of 1909, when his winnings in stakes amounted to 37,719 sovereigns and the following year, when the total reached 38,532 sovereigns. The name of "Fairie" is written large in turf history since his colors were first registered in 1887, prior to which he had had practical experience of the rough life inseparable from gold mining in Australia; not that he has any cause to regret such hardships, for it was there that he brought off the greatest coup of his career. The story has a spice of romance in it, for in the settlement of a debt of honor, he took over a seemingly worthless mine in the Broken Hill mine which not long afterwards unexpectedly turned out to be a big fortune. On returning to England the love of sport asserted itself and at the time when, as trainer for J. H. Houldsworth, Douglas Baird and, if memory serves me, Mr. Wallace, James Ryan was in the forefront of his profession, the newcomer started on a remarkably successful career. His first winner was Isobar and from small beginnings his luck followed him steadily from the land of the Southern Cross, until he had to be counted among the most conspicuous patrons of the turf and gradually became imbued with the laudable ambition to breed his own horses, relying, I fancy, to some extent on the advice of Mr. Houldsworth. Thus, after a few years' experience—in 1895, to be exact—Mr. Fairie had the satisfaction of seeing his orange sleeved white jacket pulled in the van for the first time by a home-bred filly named Galloctia, by Galopin—Agave, that won the One Thousand Guineas, beating La Sagasse, which, however, turned the tables on her in the Oaks and later she produced good winners at the stud.

A GREAT BROODMARE.

In the following season came Eager, one of the speediest horses of modern times, and although he began modestly by running third for the "Brocklesby" and could never get more than a mile, the son of Enthusiast won in the course of his career twenty races worth close on 11,000 sovereigns before he was sold to L. Neumann. There have been conspicuous instances of broodmares which have proved the foundation of successful studs, as for example, Lily Agnes, which produced for the late Duke of Westminster that equine phenomenon Ormonde; Mowerina, dam of the Duke of Portland's Donovan, and Perdita II, which, through her alliance with St. Simon, presented his late Majesty King Edward with the three famous brothers, Florizel II, Persimmon and Diamond Jubilee. Another such is Galicia, a daughter of Galopin—Isotta, which beyond winning a race at Ascot did not accomplish much in her racing career, which extended over two years only. At the stud, however, she has proved another "gold mine" as the dam of Bayardo, by Ray Ronald, and Lemberg, by Cylene. Of these three the former, a winner of the three-year-old was no great race horse and in France became a sire of winners, but Cylene, on the contrary, was a veritable champion on the race course, winning among other races, the Gold Cup in 1899, and William Jarvis, who trained him, would tell that it was lucky for Israel, winner of the Two Thousand Guineas, Jeddah, winner of the Derby, and Wildflower, winner of the St. Leger, that he had no place in the classic events of his year. At the stud he left a remarkable record behind when he went to the Argentine, having sired Cicero, Minoru, Lemberg and Tagalie, all Derby winners.

BAYARDO'S GREAT CAREER.

It is worth noting that Bayardo and Lemberg both made their debut at Ascot, trained by Alec Taylor at Manton, whither Mr. Fairie sent his horses in 1905. It was three years later that Bayardo started his brilliant career, and inclusive of the National Breeders' Produce Stakes at Sandown, the Richmond Stakes at Goodwood, and the Middle Park and Dewhurst Plates he won all his seven engagements practically unchallenged. That he should have won the Derby but for the interference he met with owing to the serious injury caused by the fall of Sir Martin when approaching Tattenham Corner. After that it was all plain sailing, as the colt picked up the winning thread again in the Prince of Wales Stakes at Ascot, and went on to win ten more races in succession, including the St. Leger, all in such decisive fashion that he retired for the winter, admittedly the champion of the year-old. As a four-year-old he won in succession the Newmarket Biennial, the Chester Vase after a close race with William the Fourth, the Gold Cup, running away from the French horse, Sea Sick, and Bachelor's Double, and the Dullingham Plate. Then came a tragic finale to a great racing career, when the odds of 20 to 1 laid on him for the Goodwood, the placing in the Middle Park Plate, after he had won the Rous Memorial at the First October meeting and later he made an example of Whisk Broom, his only opponent for the Dewhurst Plate. As a three-year-old Lemberg came out first for the Two Thousand Guineas and no one who saw that race will ever forget the extraordinary battle between him and Neil Gow. It was a match between them all the way and they raced together neck and neck from the fall of the flag, with the result that as the post was reached the head of Neil Gow showed a few inches in front, Maher's stroke of the whip falling a stride before and that of Lemberg on a stride after they had passed the Judge. This form was confirmed later in the Eclipse Stakes, when they ran a dead heat, but in the meantime Lemberg had won the Derby from Greenback, with Neil Gow unplaced. Except for the Grand Prize of Paris, when he got stuck in some boggy ground, Lemberg was only once beaten afterwards, namely in the St. Leger, when he third to Svalbard and Bronzina, but as a handsome set off he won the St. James' Palace Stakes at Ascot, the Jockey Club Stakes, the Champion Stakes and the Lowther Stakes at Newmarket and the Sandown Park Foal Stakes. Nor was this the end, for in his third season, although twice beaten by Svalbard and once by Stedfast, he won the Coronation Cup at Epsom, the Doncaster Cup, the Champion Stakes and the Lowther Stakes.

LEMBERG A DERBY WINNER.

His half-brother Lemberg was perhaps a better-looking horse than he, but not as good a racer. He began auspiciously with an easy victory in the New Stakes and went on to squander the others in the Rous Memorial at Epsom, the Doncaster, after which he started coughing and had not completely shaken off the effects at Doncaster, for admitting that Neil Gow was his equal, he certainly must have been below par to have been beaten by Admiral Hawke in the Champagne Stakes as, indeed, was subsequently demonstrated when he easily reversed the placing in the Middle Park Plate, after he had won the Rous Memorial at the First October meeting and later he made an example of Whisk Broom, his only opponent for the Dewhurst Plate. As a three-year-old Lemberg came out first for the Two Thousand Guineas and no one who saw that race will ever forget the extraordinary battle between him and Neil Gow. It was a match between them all the way and they raced together neck and neck from the fall of the flag, with the result that as the post was reached the head of Neil Gow showed a few inches in front, Maher's stroke of the whip falling a stride before and that of Lemberg on a stride after they had passed the Judge. This form was confirmed later in the Eclipse Stakes, when they ran a dead heat, but in the meantime Lemberg had won the Derby from Greenback, with Neil Gow unplaced. Except for the Grand Prize of Paris, when he got stuck in some boggy ground, Lemberg was only once beaten afterwards, namely in the St. Leger, when he third to Svalbard and Bronzina, but as a handsome set off he won the St. James' Palace Stakes at Ascot, the Jockey Club Stakes, the Champion Stakes and the Lowther Stakes at Newmarket and the Sandown Park Foal Stakes. Nor was this the end, for in his third season, although twice beaten by Svalbard and once by Stedfast, he won the Coronation Cup at Epsom, the Doncaster Cup, the Champion Stakes and the Lowther Stakes.

GAY CRUSADER.

Mr. Fairie has owned many other good horses besides those above named, but not until this year one to compare in class with the two half-brothers, for though there were hopes of Kwang Su, he, on the whole, proved disappointing in spite of being a son of Galicia. In normal times Gay Crusader would have swept the board of classic events and would have eclipsed the records of both Bayardo and Lemberg by joining the select band of triple-crowned heroes. By Bayardo, he is the first foal of Gay Laura and of his only two races last year won the Criterion Stakes from Molly Desmond by a head and would have won in another stride. Except that he was never passed the Judge, there was nothing in that form to suggest that Gay Crusader was destined to develop into the champion three-year-old, nor was the idea encouraged by a narrow victory over his stable companion Maggie in the Two Thousand Guineas, in fact, it was whispered by the man in the street there was a better colt at home in Telesphus, though I don't for a moment imagine that any such idea was ever held by his trainer. Still, I fancy, Taylor must have shared to some extent the surprise engendered by the abnormal improvement afterwards made by the colt, which came on by leaps and bounds after his Rowley mile victory and continued on the up grade to the finish, nothing was capable of extending him in the Derby and his superiority was then so firmly established that only Kingston Black and Dansellon turned out against him for the September Stakes. The Newmarket Gold Cup was no more than an exercise gallop for him.

Then came more canterers for the champion and Lowther Stakes, and finally the Limekiln Stakes, in which he gave Quarryman a stone and an easy beating, the value of which could be gauged by none but the man on his back. Some critics will say that he has earned a cheap reputation and would ask, "What has he done, after all?" The answer is that he has smothered every horse of any age that could be pitted against him, and unprejudiced judges
